

SPEAKERS

Catherine Herridge
FOX News

Catherine Herridge is an award-winning correspondent for Fox News Channel. Based in Washington DC, Catherine covers Intelligence, the Justice Department, as well as the Department of Homeland Security. Catherine and her small team of experienced journalists travelled across the US and to Yemen to complete a five month investigation into the American born cleric Anwar al-Awlaki who is linked to three of the 9/11 hijackers, the Fort Hood attack, the attempted bombing Christmas Day as well as the failed attack on Times Square. It showed that critical information about Awlaki and his mysterious return to the US in October 2002 was withheld from investigators with the 9/11 Commission. Fox's reporting, which was prompted by letters from Capitol Hill, raised new questions about Awlaki. Catherine has also travelled extensively to Guantanamo Bay Cuba where she has reported on the military commissions including the arraignment of Khalid Sheikh Mohammed and his four co-conspirators.

Honorable
Thomas J. Ridge
Ridge Global LLC

The Honorable Tom Ridge is president and CEO of the international consulting firm Ridge Global. He served as the nation's first Secretary of the U.S. Department of Homeland Security from January 2003 through January 2005, and as the Assistant to the President for Homeland Security from October 2001 through December 2002. Previously, he was governor of the Commonwealth of Pennsylvania from 1995 through October 2001 and a member of the U.S. House of Representatives from 1983 through 1995. A Vietnam combat veteran, Secretary Ridge continues to work with organizations to assist our nation's veterans, serves as chairman of the National Organization on Disability and co-chairs the Flight 93 National Memorial. He holds a B.S. from Harvard University and J.D. from the Dickinson School of Law.

General
Keith B. Alexander
National Security
Agency

General Keith B. Alexander, USA, is the Director, National Security Agency/Chief, Central Security Service (NSA/CSS) and Commander, U.S. Cyber Command (USCYBERCOM), Fort George G. Meade, MD. As the Director of NSA and Chief of CSS, he is responsible for a Department of Defense agency with national foreign intelligence and combat support responsibilities. NSA/CSS civilian and military personnel are stationed worldwide. As Commander, USCYBERCOM, he is responsible to plan, execute and manage forces for coordinating DoD computer network attack (CNA) and computer network defense (CND) as directed by USSTRATCOM.

He was born in Syracuse, NY, and entered active duty at the U.S. Military Academy at West Point.

Prescott Winter
ArcSight

Prescott B. Winter has served as our Chief Technology Officer for the Public Sector since March 2010. Prior to ArcSight, Dr. Winter served as Associate Deputy Director of National Intelligence for Information Integration for the National Security Agency (NSA) from 2008 to 2009. Dr. Winter served more than 25 years at the NSA, including positions as CIO and CTO; Chief, NSA Commercial Solutions Center; Chief, Customer Response; and Deputy Chief, Defensive Information Operations. Dr. Winter holds bachelor's, master's and PhD degrees from Stanford University.

SPEAKERS

Bryan Martin
ManTech
Mission, Cyber & Technology
Solutions

Mr. Bryan Martin is the Chief Technology Officer of ManTech's Mission, Cyber & Technology Solutions group, a leading global provider of innovative technologies and solutions for mission-critical national security programs for the Intelligence Community; the departments of Defense, State, Homeland Security and Justice; the Space Community; National Oceanic and Atmospheric Administration; and other U.S. federal government customers. In his role as CTO he provides expertise in technical strategy development, business development, vendor and partner relationship management, and technical staff development for the MCTS group. He also manages an internal R&D portfolio of projects including identification, prioritization and execution.

Steve Fredrick
Grotech Ventures

Steve is a General Partner with Grotech Ventures, where he leads investments in the software, wireless, and digital media sectors. Steve currently serves on the boards of LogiXML, Omnilink Systems, RollStream, Invincea and TRAFFIQ. Steve earned his BS and MS in Electrical Engineering, from Virginia Tech. and served for several years as an Adjunct Professor of Entrepreneurship at the University of Maryland's Smith School of Business. He is a frequent speaker on entrepreneurship and venture investing.

Bob Kipps
KippsDeSanto
& Co.

Mr. Kipps is a Managing Director at KippsDeSanto & Co., with over 20 years of experience in providing transaction advisory and financial consulting services to leading defense and technology firms.

Prior to founding KippsDeSanto & Co., Mr. Kipps was a Managing Director in Houlihan Lokey's Washington, DC office and a leader of Houlihan Lokey's Aerospace-Defense-Government industry group. Some of his notable industry clients have included Oberon Associates, Phoenix Consulting, Foster-Miller, Kadix Systems, Datatrac, Alion Science and Argon ST. He was recognized in 2007 as the Dealmaker of the Year by the regional chapter of the Association for Corporate Growth.

Hugh Njemanze
ArcSight

Mr. Njemanze co-founded ArcSight in 2000 and has served as EVP of Research and Development and CTO since 2002. He leads product development, information technology deployment and product research, and is an advisor at Silicon Valley Internet Capital. Prior to ArcSight, Mr. Njemanze served as CTO at Verity, a provider of knowledge retrieval software products. Mr. Njemanze also worked at Apple Computer in software engineering, where he was one of the key architects of the Apple Data Access Language (DAL). Prior to that, he co-architected CL/1 (Connectivity Language One) at Network Innovations and co-developed several language compiler products at Hewlett Packard. Mr. Njemanze is a CISSP and holds a B.S. in computer science from Purdue University. Hugh was honored as the 2010 Ernst & Young Entrepreneur Of The Year.

Haiyan Song
ArcSight

Haiyan Song has served as our Vice President of Engineering since September 2005. From 2004 to September 2005, Haiyan served as Vice President of Engineering at SenSage, a provider of log management and compliance auditing applications. From 2003 to 2004, Ms. Song has served as Vice President of Engineering and support at Omniva Policy Systems, a provider of secure messaging solutions, acquired by Liquid Machines. Ms. Song led engineering organizations at various enterprise software and service providers including Katera Technology, Escalate and Informix. As Executive Director at Informix for the system management product division, she led the development of trusted RDBMS server products. Ms. Song studied at Tsinghua University in Beijing and holds a B.S. in Computer Science and M.S. in Computer Engineering from Florida Atlantic University.

SPEAKERS

Gary Winkler
US ARMY
Enterprise
Information
Systems

Gary Winkler took command of the Program Executive Office for Enterprise Information Systems (PEO EIS) in October 2007. In this assignment, he is responsible for large-scale Department of Defense and Army Information Technology (IT) system development efforts supporting finance, logistics, personnel, communications infrastructure, biometrics, medical and war-fighting functions. He leads a workforce of more than 2,600 military, civilian and contractor personnel around the world to effectively execute approximately $3 billion per year, about 35 percent of the Army's IT budget.

David Hale
TD AMERITRADE

David Hale is the Chief Privacy Officer and a Senior Counsel for the leading on-line brokerage TD AMERITRADE. David oversees all privacy programs for a company with over six million clients and a constant push to bring innovation to the financial industry. Prior to TD AMERITRADE, David was a partner in the Baltimore law firm Astrachan Gunst Thomas, an associate at Wildman Harrold in Chicago and an adjunct professor at the University of Baltimore Law School. He received his JD from George Washington University Law School and a B.A. from Rice University.

Kevin Greene
Valhalla Partners

Kevin Greene is a Principal at Valhalla Partners. He has over twelve years of operating, banking and investment experience with both early and late stage technology, healthcare and media companies. Prior to joining Valhalla Partners, Kevin was a principal at Flagship Ventures, a $600 million early-stage venture capital firm in Cambridge, Massachusetts where he served as a member of the investment team and worked closely with a number of Flagship's portfolio companies. Before Flagship, Kevin worked for IBM out of its Research Triangle Park, North Carolina campus where he was responsible for establishing, retaining and growing relationships with IBM business partners across the globe. Prior to IBM, Kevin worked for several years at Goldman Sachs in its New York and Hong Kong offices where he executed over $30 billion in equity, equity-linked, and M&A financing transactions for technology, healthcare, media and energy-related clients.

Cyril Draffin
Northrop
Grumman
Corporation

Cyril Draffin is Vice President, Homeland Security, Northrop Grumman Corporation. Mr. Draffin leads the development of campaigns and assessments to support homeland security customers, including the Department of Homeland Security, the Department of Defense, other federal agencies, state and local governments, and international organizations. He is responsible for identifying opportunities including border management; critical infrastructure protection; chemical, biological, radiological, and nuclear detection and response; emergency preparedness and response; and information analysis. Mr. Draffin received B.S. and M.S. degrees from MIT and is a Chartered Financial Analyst.